Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
Under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 you are required to give details of convictions which are legally spent. A conviction will not necessarily be a bar to obtaining employment with us, but failure to disclose any criminal conviction will disqualify you from this appointment and may render you liable to dismissal without notice.
a) Do you have a criminal conviction which is not legally spent? Yes \(\text{Yes} \)
Because of the nature of our work, most of our job positions are subject to checks from the Disclosure and Barring Service. In such cases you must disclose all criminal convictions, whether spent or not. You should read the guidance notes in the Application for Employment Guide and may seek appropriate advice before you answer the following questions.
b) Have you ever been convicted, cautioned or bound over in connection with a criminal offence, other than for a motoring offence not resulting in disqualification? Yes No
c) Has any action ever been taken against you by a local authority or the police regarding a child under 18 years of age or vulnerable adult? Yes No
d) Have you ever been found guilty of violent, cruel, indecent or dishonest behaviour in any military service disciplinary proceedings? Yes No

If your answer is 'Yes' to any of the above questions, please provide details:
If you are unsure as to whether this section applies to you or the post to which you are applying, you should state above: "TO BE DISCUSSED IF CALLED FOR INTERVIEW"
General Information
a) Do you hold a full, clean current valid driving licence?	Yes 🗌 No 🗌
b) Do you have any driving endorsements / convictions that are not spent under the terms of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974?	Yes 🗌 No 🗌
c) Do you have any possible prosecutions pending?	Yes 🗌 No 🗌
d) Do you have a car which you can use for work which will be insured at all times for business use?	Yes 🗌 No 🗌
Equality Act 2010
This Act protects people with disabilities from unlawful discrimination. Urban Outreach is committed to employing people with disabilities. Candidates who have a disability and have demonstrated that they fulfil the minimum criteria for the post are guaranteed an interview. Please indicate if you have a disability to enable us to deal with your application under this arrangement.
Yes ☐ No ☐ If YES, please state the nature of the disability:
Do we need to make any special arrangements in order for you to attend the interview?
Yes ☐ No ☐ If YES, please give details:
Relationships
Are you related to any member of staff or trustee at Urban Outreach?
Yes No If YES, please give details:
Data Protection Act (1998)
By completing this form and otherwise supplying information to Urban Outreach you agree that Urban Outreach may obtain, retain and process personal data supplied by you or relating to you for recruitment, vetting, selection and appointment purposes; and subsequently if you are employed by Urban Outreach for payroll purposes, training records, management of sickness absence, and as required or permitted by statute or regulation and generally as necessary under the employment relationship and Urban Outreach's legitimate activities.
Asylum and Immigration Act
It is a criminal offence for an employer to engage a person whose immigration status prevents them from working in this country. You should therefore be aware that prior to confirmation of appointment, you will have to produce documentary evidence confirming your entitlement to employment within the U.K.

Relevant skills, knowledge and experience
This is the most important part of your application. Please refer to our Application for Employment Guide before completing.
You may, if you wish, word process your response to this section and attach it to your hand-completed application form. If you choose to do this, please include your name and the Job Title for the position you are applying for at the top of each and every attached sheet.
You must refer to the Job Description and Person Specification when completing this section. You will need to respond separately to this question for each job you are applying for. It may be helpful if you provide a separate heading for each of the skills, knowledge and experiences outlined on the Person Specification. You should demonstrate how and what you have done to meet each of the criteria. You should provide examples of how you have carried out tasks or achieved results which demonstrate evidence of your ability to succeed in the job you are applying for. Be specific and detail your own responsibilities and not those of others you have worked with.

If appointed, when could you start the job?
